Activity Checks are designed to provide insight into a subject's activities, interests or whereabouts.

ESTABLISH ACTIVITY LEVEL BENEFITS

Without a doubt one of the most powerful investigations in the industry today is the Activity Check.

DANIEL J. FLEMING
Business Owner

Activity Checks are a cost effective, efficient alternative to other costly investigations.

In an incident, injury, or occupational disease the most critical of information must be obtained as soon as possible to manage the best claim outcome.

Your investigation should determine whether an individual's level of activity is or is not consistent with their claimed condition and restrictions

- Complete data base research.
- Cost effective alternative or pre-cursor to surveillance.
- Allows claims professional the opportunity to assess the investigative needs of a file in a cost effective manner.
- Establish the foundation for future investigative needs.
